The author of "Vara' does not need much of an introduction or of commendation beyond the merits of that delightfol book, to which we endeavored to do justice at the time of its first appearance.

The author is an admirable delineator of character and of scenery, and is unquestionably an essneet and devoted lover of the Bible and its fruite.

"We do not know who this author is, or whether it be a man or woman; but we do know the power and influence of the books put forth under his imprimatur. Vara' was the pretiset book of the last three year—a simple, beautiful religious story, that won every reader."

A DVERTISING in CANADA.—THE HAM—
ILTOM SPECTATOR is the best Advertising medium published in the Canadian Peninsula between the Niagara and Detroit Rivers. Its long-established reputation as a first-class Commercial Paper, and its recognition as the leading Conservative journal of Upper Canada have placed it at the head of its Canadian equipmoparies, both in circulation and influence.

THE SPECTATOR is is published Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly. The "Daily" circulates chiefly in the cities, towns, and villages. The "Weekly" published at the low rate of $1 per annum renjoys a very large circulation among the agricultural classes, while the "Semi-Weekly" occupies an intermediate position. This may guide advertisers in the selection of the edition which it would most serve their interests to patronise.

Orders may be sent through Meeras & M. PETTENGILL & Co. New York or Roston, or addressed to the publishers.
